The Roxanne Adinolfi Grant in Aid Six applications have been submitted so far! Hopefully we can have an outdoor gathering in May to award the grant!

New Jersey
State Organization

The NJ State Convention was a success! There was a problem with Zoom on Saturday morning, but Ingrid was resourceful, and she got some good help! We elected new officers for the biennium, and they were installed. Dr. Nora Pollard is our new state president. Forty-five women were inducted into membership, and they are an impressive group! Laura Lewis was one of 20 women who were honored during the Celebration of Life on Sunday morning. (Thank you to Roberta for taking pictures! Please see more on our website!) Awards were announced. Our own recipient of the Rose Award will be honored at our first in-person gathering!

We did not get the Past Presidents' Award at the convention, but I did choose a project for us, just in case. We will be gathering supplies to make blessing bags for Unforgotten Haven in Blackwood. Check out their website!

To create a blessing bag, use one or two gallon Ziploc bag, and fill it with each of the following items:

- Chap Stick
- Toothbrush
- Trial Size Toothpaste
- Trial Size Lotion
- Trial Size Shampoo and Conditioner
- Trial Size Hand Sanitizer
- Soap
- Wet Wipes
- Washcloth
- Small Pack of Tissues
- Trial Size or Full Size Deodorant
- Pre Packaged Snack (Peanut Butter Crackers, Granola Bar, Chips (etc)).

Once we have decided when and where we will meet in May, I will send out a sign up sheet for you to choose what you would like to contribute. Thank you to everyone who has contributed books to the DKG state project! At the last count, Sigma has donated 3,573 books to be given to children who otherwise might not own a book of their own. The project is still going on, so if you find more books you don't want, please let Sky know. A BIG THANKS to her for keeping track of this for us!

Sue Yoder has been in the hospital, and she is now home awaiting surgery. Cards and texts would be appreciated! Her address is 104 E. Linden Collingswood, NJ 08108
